mitzi / tastemakers

Mitzi has partnered with a talented group of influencers, interior designers, and artists to bring their fresh perspectives to light through a series of new collections. The Tastemakers series features trend-setting pieces from the fastest-rising talent in the design world, all with a Mitzi twist. Explore the latest collections from Dabito, Megan Molten, and Tali Roth, featuring new designs and fresh updates on popular favorites from their first collections.

Ariel Okin translates her "traditional with a twist" aesthetic into lighting design. Tailored silhouettes are paired with varying shades of signature AO blues, hints of brass, and subtle textures.

Dabito is renowned for his creative use of color, maximal eclectic mix of sculptural and vintage pieces, and accessible, Dab-It-Yourself approach to design.

Eny Lee Parker uses clay as her primary medium, and reclaims the essence of past "makers" and traditional crafts, embracing slowness, intention, and respect for natural resources.

Megan Molten is known for her light and airy Modern Coastal style, Megan's debut collection focuses on organic forms and natural materials.

Tali Roth Interior Design operates globally and collaborates with product creators and brands, bringing her exuberant personality and sensibility to consumers everywhere.

Zio & Sons pays homage to the past while looking forward to creating timeless decor. His collection marries nostalgic silhouettes with clean lines and fine finishes for a beautifully layered assortment.
